Membership guidelines

As a member you will have the right to do the following things:

- Attend and vote at general meetings;
- Receive the annual accounts of the CIC;
- Elect the directors by voting at the meeting;
- Approve the regulations proposed by the directors relating to the governance of the CIC including the procedures governing applications for and approval of grants from the CIC's community fund;
- Vote on any fundamental changes to the nature of the CIC, its name, its purposes, its policies or what happens to its surplus income.

You will not become liable for any debts of the CIC by becoming a member, nor will you become liable if someone brings a legal case against the CIC. If the CIC were to be wound up (if, for example, it cannot pay its debts) you would have to pay £1 to the CIC.

You will not be able to influence the selection of recipients of any grants made, nor will you be entitled to receive any dividend or other income from the CIC. If the CIC has surplus funds these will be retained to pay for the CIC's activities in the following years.
